Employment Agreement

Province of Ontario

1. Position and Start Date

Northline Logistics Ltd. (the "Company"), of 1200 Bay Street, Toronto, Ontario M5R 2A5, offers Priya Sandhu (the "Employee") full-time employment as Operations Coordinator, starting on December 1, 2026.

The Employee reports to the Director of Operations. The Company may change the Employee's title, duties, reporting line, work location and hours at any time at its sole discretion, and any such change shall not constitute a termination or constructive dismissal.

2. Probationary Period

The first six (6) months of employment are a probationary period. During probation the Company may terminate the Employee's employment at any time, for any reason, without notice or pay in lieu of notice.

3. Compensation

The Employee will receive an annual base salary of $72,000.00, paid bi-weekly in equal instalments of $2,600.00, less applicable deductions.

The Employee's salary is compensation for all hours worked. The Employee is not entitled to overtime pay, regardless of the number of hours worked in any week.

4. Hours of Work

Regular hours are Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The Employee agrees to work additional evening and weekend hours as required by the Company, and agrees that unpaid lunch breaks may be shortened or skipped during busy periods.

5. Vacation

The Employee will receive five (5) days of paid vacation per year, available after completing twelve (12) months of employment. Vacation may only be taken at times approved by the Company. Unused vacation is forfeited at the end of each year and is not paid out on termination.

6. Benefits

The Employee will be eligible for the Company's group benefits plan after a waiting period of six (6) months. The Company may amend or cancel the plan at any time without notice or compensation.

7. Termination Without Cause

After probation, the Company may terminate the Employee's employment without cause by giving one (1) week of notice or pay in lieu of notice, regardless of the Employee's length of service.

This amount is inclusive of all entitlements under the Employment Standards Act, 2000 and at common law, and no severance pay shall be owed.

Benefits end on the Employee's last day of active work.

8. Resignation

The Employee must give the Company at least eight (8) weeks of written notice of resignation. If the Employee fails to do so, the Company may deduct from the Employee's final pay an amount equal to the wages for the notice period not provided.

9. Confidentiality

During and after employment, the Employee shall not disclose any confidential information of the Company, including customer lists, pricing, routes and supplier terms, except as required to perform the Employee's duties or by law.

10. Non-Competition

For twenty-four (24) months after the end of employment for any reason, the Employee shall not, anywhere in Canada, work for, consult for or own any interest in any business involved in logistics, transportation, warehousing or supply chain services.

11. Non-Solicitation

For twelve (12) months after the end of employment, the Employee shall not solicit any customer or employee of the Company with whom the Employee had dealings in the last year of employment.

12. Intellectual Property

All inventions, works, software, ideas and other intellectual property created by the Employee during the term of employment, whether or not during working hours, using Company resources, or related to the Company's business, belong exclusively to the Company. The Employee waives all moral rights in such works.

13. Deductions

The Employee authorizes the Company to deduct from any wages owing the cost of any Company property lost or damaged while in the Employee's care, any cash shortages, and the cost of any training provided if the Employee leaves within two (2) years.

14. Entire Agreement

This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties and replaces all prior discussions. It may be amended by the Company by written notice to the Employee. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario.
